

How WOGY handles information we collect through our web site

WOGY currently collects information through its web site in the following ways:

WOGY will use collected information generally to compile statistical data, keep in contact with web site users and provide them with a better interactive experience. We may use your information specifically for the following purposes, depending on the type of information you have supplied and any requests for information you have made: to contact you as part of a promotion, to allow you to make a posting on the site, to provide technical or customer support, to send you marketing materials from WOGY and/or other stations in our group, to complete business transactions, to meet legal requirements, to provide internet security, and/or to analyze the collected information. In addition, if WOGY is involved in a sale of a our business assets, or a portion thereof, your information may be a part of the transferred assets.

If you have any questions about the types of personal information collected and how it is used, or if you want to request that we not use your information to contact you or for other purposes, please contact WOGY at (731)427-3316 and ask for Verla Price or write to Verla Price at WOGY, 122 Radio Road, Jackson Tn 38301, or email her at vprice@forevercomm.com.

Birthdays and anniversaries you submit will be announced on the air at WOGY. By submitting birthdays and/or anniversaries, you are giving consent to WOGY to air this information, which may include the celebrant's name, city of residence, age and the name(s) of the persons sending the greetings. You also give consent for WOGY to keep this information in a database in order that we may compile the daily lists of birthdays and anniversaries to announce. WOGY collects the sender's email address only for the purpose of contacting the sender if WOGY has a question regarding the birthday and/or anniversary. WOGY does not retain this email address in any database, and we do not sell or release the sender's email address, or any information in the birthday and/or anniversary, to any third party, unless required by law enforcement or other legal agencies in order to facilitate legal or criminal investigations. Requests for advertising information: WOGY maintains a form on its site (<http://www.froggy1041.com/pages/4014412.php>) which provides a way for a business or individual to request more information on how to advertise on WOGY. The information collected on the form may include name, business name, address, phone number, fax number and email address. WOGY maintains this information in-house and uses it to send the requested information and may use it to send marketing materials related to advertising on WOGY and/or other stations in our group. WOGY does not sell or release this information to any third party outside of our organization, unless required by law enforcement or other legal agencies in order to facilitate legal or criminal investigations. See the special statement about collecting information from and/or about children younger than 13 years old.

Public Service Announcements: WOGY provides an email link and online form for submitting public service announcements to air on WOGY. We recognize that some of these items may include personal information such as names, addresses, email addresses and phone and fax numbers in the body of the message. By submitting this information to WOGY, you are giving consent for that information to be broadcast on WOGY for the purpose of allowing listeners to obtain more information about the event announced, unless you specifically request the withholding of that information in writing in the email containing the announcement. Regarding email addresses of the person sending the psa, this information will not be sold or released to any third party, unless required by law enforcement or other legal agencies in order to facilitate legal or criminal investigations, in which case ALL information included with the submitted announcement will be released to the investigating agencies. Other email communications to WOGY: WOGY provides on its web site email addresses of on-air personalities and other staff members of WOGY. All email sent to these addresses becomes the property of WOGY, and we reserve the right to use any emails sent to us in any manner deemed appropriate, which may include reading them on the air (ex: song requests, stories, jokes, messages, etc.) or passing them on to our advertising staff if the sender appears to be a business or potential advertiser, in which case the sender may receive marketing materials from WOGY and/or other stations in our group. If you do not wish your email to be used on the air, you may either state in your email that you do not want us to use it on the air, or do not send the email. WOGY does not sell or release personal information contained in emails we receive to third parties (outside of anything we may use on the air), unless required by law enforcement or other legal agencies in order to facilitate legal or criminal investigations. Online contests: WOGY may, from time to time, run online contests or promotions, in which we solicit personal information from the entrant. By submitting your information and entering the online contest or promotion, you give WOGY, and/or any sponsor(s) running the contest or promotion, permission to use your information in order to facilitate the administration of the contest or promotion. In addition, you give WOGY and/or the sponsor(s) permission to contact you using the information you provide, and WOGY and/or the sponsor(s) may elect to send you marketing materials. WOGY will not sell or release your personal information to third parties, unless required to do so by law enforcement or other legal agencies in order to facilitate legal or criminal investigations. Contest/promotion sponsor(s), if any, may possibly choose to sell or release your personal information to other parties, and WOGY is not responsible for the sponsor's use of your information. If you have concerns about any contest/promotion sponsor(s) using or selling your personal information, you should contact the sponsor(s) directly BEFORE entering the contest or promotion. WOGY may also post links to online contests administered by third parties, in which case WOGY is not responsible for collection, maintaining or use of personal information in those contests. The privacy statements of the entities or individuals running the contests would apply in those situations. WOGY advises you to carefully read and be sure you understand those privacy statements before entering any third party contests. Special statement regarding the collection of information from and/or about children younger than 13 years old: In order to comply with The Children's Online Privacy Protection Rule, WOGY asks that anyone younger than 13 years old NOT submit any personal information about themselves, or any other person younger than 13 years old, unless the parents or legal guardians of all involved submit written permission to: WOGY, 122 Radio Rd., Jackson TN 38301. Permission will not be accepted verbally. This restriction applies to submissions of birthdays and/or anniversaries via the WOGY web site, contests that WOGY administers on our web site, emails to our staff sent via our web site, or any other communication or post via the WOGY web site. In addition, WOGY asks adults to NOT send personal information about any child younger than 13 years old, unless the child is your own, or in your legal custody, or unless the parent or legal guardian has given written permission for you to do so. This restriction applies to submissions of birthdays and/or anniversaries via the WOGY web site, contests that WOGY administers on our web site, emails to our staff sent via our web site, or any other communication or post via the WOGY web site.
